Bruno Delmaestro has a strong background in skating, having been a three-time Italian National figure skating champion, European and world competitor, and a hockey player. He has been able to transfer this success to his coaching and has been training hockey players, figure skaters and coaches for the past 41 years. He has developed his own theory and methods for teaching hockey, ringette, and figure skating. He is currently a NCCP Level 4 Certified coach in Canada. Bruno has coached many of his figure skaters to National and International medals, and world competitors. In 1999, 2001 and 2006 he was selected as the Competitive Coach of the Year for the British Columbia and Yukon Sections of Skate Canada. He has developed National champions in figure skating for Canada, Finland, Singapore and Hong Kong. In hockey, Bruno has trained players who have been Drafted and have played in the N.H.L., Team Canada, European, and Asian hockey leagues, W.H.L., B.C.H.L., NCAA as well as players who have been awarded university scholarships in North America. For the past 6 years, Bruno has trained Connor Bedard in skating, the 2023 #1 draft pick in the NHL. Bruno is also a Skate Canada Master CanPowerSkate Course Conductor and has worked with many different minor hockey associations who have used his skating programs.
